Rev. John M. Lander's sermon before the Woman's Missionary Society in the Methodist Church last Sunday night was listened to by a large and attentive audience. The subject was ably and eloquently presented, and those who heard the sermon were no doubt impressed with the duty of redoubling their efforts in the missionary cause in the future. Mr. Lander is a young man of fine talent, and gives promise of being a valiant laborer in the Master's vineyard.

The Mt. Tahor Debatting Societies.

The Mt. Tabor Debating Society has challenged the Sandy Springs Debating Society to meet it in public debate at Deep Creek Grange Hall, near Centerville Mills, on Friday evening, 24th inst. The question selected for discussion is: "Which has the greatest influence over the mind of man—Woman or Wealth?" We have been requested to make this notice, and extend an invitation to the public generally and the ladies especially to be present,

In our notice last week of Mr. Jas. Roberts' fine cotton, we erred in stating that he procured the seed at the Atlanta Exposition. He did procure several varieties there, among them the Ozier variety, which took the premium, but the cotton Mr. Roberts showed us came from seed that his father has planted for years. The several varieties he secured in Atlanta were planted side by side with his seed, and everybody who saw the cotton, after it had matured, said Mr. Roberts' was the best.

on Monday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock a cottage, belonging to Mrs. A. M. Brown, on Market street, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was given, and a crowd promptly collected and extinguished the flames before much damage was done. The house was unoccupled, Col. B. F. Browne having moved out of it several days previous. The fire was discovered burning on the East side of the L adjoining the main body. No fire had been about the premises for several days, and it was a mystery as to how the fire originated. On Tuesday morning an examination was made, and a lot of pine shavings were found upon the sill directly under the hole which had been burned in the floor, evincing clearly that the house had been fired by an incendiary. We trust the perpetrator will be brought to justice.

Capt. Samuel E. Maxwell, of Oconee County, died at the residence of his son, Mr. Frank Maxwell, on Toxaway, in that County, on last Sunday, after a protracted illness from dropsy of the heart. Captain Maxwell was a prominent and popular citizen of Oconee, and was well known throughout the upper part of the State. He belonged to a large and influential family, and has many relatives and friends in our County. Capt. Maxwell joined the Episcopal Church in Pendleton a few months ago, and died in the hope and faith of that denomination. He was a genial gentleman, and before the war was possessed of a large property, in the use of which he evinced unbounded liberality. At the close of the war his paoperty was much reduced, though not swept away. Capt. Maxwell was a good citizen, and many friends regret his death.

were away. Capt. Maxwell was a good citizen, and many friends regret his death.

We received an anonymous communication (evidently from a youth) the other day, in which he stated that he was deeply in love with a fair maiden, but that she does not care a straw for him, and unless he succeeds in winning her hand and heart he believes that he is not long for this world. He asks us to advise him what is best to do under the circumstances, or to give him a remedy for his depressed feelings. We are not capable of advising our young friend, for we have never been similarly afflicted, nor are we a physician, but we are quite intimate with two popular young bachelor pharmacists (Messrs. T. F. Hill and F. T. Wilhite) of this city, and we have consulted them for his benefit, knowing that they have both passed through such a trying ordeal. They recommend the following prescription, and we advise our afflicted friend to clip it out and take it to either one of them and have it filled: "Spirits vini Otardi, z. 1.; sugarum whitum, q. s.; icibus coolus, q. r.; shakiste violenter; addus spriggus mintus duus, and suckite cum strawum." We make no charge for this, and publish it for the benefit of the unknown young man and all others who are similarly afflicted. We know nothing of its efficacy, but Messrs. Wilhite and Hill say it will cure overy case of love sickness, and they ought to know.

A Deplorable Accident. A Deplorable Accident.

Last Saturday evening about dark Mr.
John E. Jenkins, familiarly known as Dock Jenkins, who resides just over the line in Pickens County, met with a fatal accident near Mr. John Eskew's residence, 3 miles North of this city. Mr.
Jenkins had been to the city that day for the purpose of settling his taxes, and was on his way home when the accident occurred. He was riding a young mule, which was unruly and hard to manage.
Mr. Eskew, who was also on his way home from the city, caught up with Mr.
Jenkins this side of his (Eskew's) home.
Mr. Jenkins stopped him and asked him Mr. Jenkins stopped him and asked him if he could give him astring, as his stirrup strap was broken. Mr. Eskew assisted him in fixing the stirrup, and Jenkins re-mounted. Just at this time Mr. Evins re-mounted. Just at this time Mr. Evins Brown, a young man residing about six miles above heav, came riding up, and he and Jenkins galloped off up the road, both men being under the influence of liquor, the former pretty drunk. Mr. Eskew drove on slowly, and in a few minutes came upon both men again. He found Jenkins laying on the roadside speechless and Brown sitting by him, Mr. Eskew asked what was the matter, but Brown could not tell anything about it. Dr. J. P. Duckett, who had been visiting a patient, drove up just at this time Mr. Eskew asked what was the matter, but Brown could not tell anything about it. Dr. J. P. Duckett, who had been visiting a patient, drove up just at this time and immediately administered to the unfortunate man. Seeing that Jenkins was badly hurt, Mr. Eskew and Dr. Duckett lifted him up and, placing him in a buggy, carried nim to Mr. Eskew's home, where everything possible was done to alleviate his sufferings, but it was all in vain. Mr. Jenkins lingered until about 10 o'clock Sunday night, when death came to his relief. He never spoke after the accident. No one in the community knew Jenkins, and Mr. Eskew was puzzled to find out where his people resided. A tax receipt was found in his pocket, and Mr. Eskew took this and sent to the Auditer's office, where he found out the township in which his people resided. He then sent a messenger to the family, carrying the news of the sad accident. Jenkins was a young mân, well thought of in his neighborhood, and was not considered an intemperate man. He leaves a wife and one child.

Coroner Nance held an inquest over the deceased on Monday morning. After hearing the evidence, the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death by either being thrown by his mule or falling off of it.

A terrible gash was cut in the left side of Jenkins' head, just above the ear. Mr. Brown was the only witness to the accident, and he says he was too drunk to remember anything about how it co-curred. Jenkins' mule was slightly skinned in several places.

Mr. Eskew and Dr. Duckett were unremitting in their efforts to alleviate the sufferings and help the poor man, and evinced the most commendable sympathy and kindness in their attention both to bim and to his family.

OBITUARY.

TO FAIR VISITORS.

It is but just and fair to state that no one can afford to visit the Anderson Farmers' and Mechanics' Agricultural Association without "taking in" the New York Cash Store. It is a sight to see the array of beautiful Goods, to learn the latest styles and hear the lowest Prices. Every lady of taste does and cannot help admiring our choice and unique designs of Fail Hats and Bonnets—they are real gems—artistic, stylish and cheap; they are matchless this side of New York. And then look at the Grand, fur-trimmed, Circulars, the English Top-Coats or Newmarkets, the Jackets and Jerseys, and you will wonder at the heautiful Goods kept at this establishment. Carpets and fine Rugs will astonish you—so will the fine Lace Curtains. To the Gentlemen we can only say, do not buy a Suit and Hat, until you look there first. A saving of from $2.00 to $5.00 on every Suit or Overcoat is guaranteed. Our large Shoe stock speaks for itself. All are welcome.

PLAIN QUESTIONS.

Mythical ideas are fanning the public brow, with the breath of prejudice, ignorance or humbuggery. Have you the remotest idea that your scrofula was created by the use of potash and mercury? No matter what the cause, B. B. B. is the peer of all other remedies. Do you presume that your troublesome catarrh is the result of mineral poisoning? B. B. B. is the quickest remedy. Are your chronic ulcers and boils and sores the result of potash and mercury? Medical gentlemen will not tell you so, but B. B. B. is the only sovereign remedy. Were your terrible kidney troubles created by mineral poisoning? Not a bit of it, but B. B. B. has proyen to be a reliable remedy. Are your skin diseases, your eczema, dry tetter, etc., the effect of too much potash and mercury? The medical profession are the best judges, and they say nay, but B. B. B. makes more pronounced cures than all other preparations combined.

Ladies when in Anderson are invited to call at C. F. Jones & Co. and see their beautiful stock of Dry Goods, Notions and Fine Shoes. Their Dress Goods, Black Cashmeres, Flannels and Corsets are the best to be found in the city for the money. Their store was never so full of new goods of every description, and their prices, as many have already found out, are the lowest to be found in Anderson.

A Physician's Testimony.—I was called to see Mr. John Pearson, who was confined to his bed with what appeared to be consumption of the worst form. As all of his family had died with that dread disease his family had died with that dread disease (except his half brother), his death was re-garded as certain and soon. After exhaust-ing all the remedies, I finally, as a last re-sort, sent for a bottle of Brewer's Lung Resort, sent for a bottle of Brewer's Lung Restorer, and it acted like magic. He continued the use of it for some time and has been fully restored to health. So far as I could discover, he had consumption, and Brewer's Lung Restorer saved his life.

Treatment of Cancer.

For twenty years I have suffered from a cancer on the side of my neck near the shoulder, and exhausted the whole catalouge of remedies without any relief. The cancer growing worse all the time, the whole upper part of my body became stiff and full of pain. I had virtually lost the use of both arms, my general health had broken down and I saw it was only a question of time when life itself would be destroyed. In this condition I commenced the use of Swift's Specific. The first bottle relieved me of the stiffness in the neck, the second gave me perfect use of my arms, and I feel strong and well in every way. I am a poor man but I would not take $5.000 for the great I have in every way. I am a poor man but I would not take $5,000 for the good I have experienced with Swift's Specific. I believe it will force out all the poison and cure me. W. R. ROBISON, Davisboro, Ga.

TROTTING MATCH

"J. I. C., the celebrated trotting horse, (named after his owner J. 1. Case, Esq.,) was recently entered at Prospect Park, Brooklyn, to lower his own record of 2.10, so as to beat "Maud S," Vanderbilt's great mare, the fastest animal on record, and whose time was 2.09?. The excitement was intense, 6,000 people having assembled to witness the contest, every one being eager and expectantly looking for the favorite to appear. At shout 3 o'clock p. m. "J. I. C.," amid tremendous applause, came down the track, passing the Grand Stand of the Judges, throwing first one car and then the other forward, as if in recognition of the cheering of the crowd, then passing once around the race course, just to get warmed up and prepare himself for the race, the excitement running higher every minute, until "He is off! He ry minute, until "He is off! He is off!" echoed through the crowd. And sure enough, he was off! With rapid strides he moved on, on, increasing his speed at every step, fairly flying through the air, as if by magic, passing around the curves like a whirlwind; then coming in plain view of the spectators, every-body on tip-toe, and the excitement of the people was at fever heat to get a glimpse of the beautiful black steed as he dashed along. Passing by the Grand Stand he slacked up, and after returning in front of the steed as he dashed along. Passing by the Grand Stand he slacked up, and after returning in front of the Judges' Stand, in a few moments the Board announced the record at 2.182, at the second trial at 2.14, and the third time at 2.124.
